University Democrats - College Republicans Joint Statement on Donation Drives in Support of Hurricane Harvey Victims

Austin, Texas - University Democrats and College Republicans have issued the following statement regarding our joint effort to provide relief and assistance to the countless individuals who fell victim to the devastation brought on by Hurricane Harvey.

University Democrats and College Republicans issued the following statement:

“The devastation brought to our shores by Hurricane Harvey left thousands of men, women, and children homeless, with nowhere else to turn. These next two weeks, our organizations and members are coming together under a common goal: to assist.

We encourage members of the UT community to come out and provide whatever
